ABOUT JORDAN, MINNESOTA

Located along the wooded bluffs and rolling hills of Scott County, the community of Jordan enjoys that warm county feeling of an established city with a small-town ambiance.

Brentwood Court Apartments is adjacent to Jordan's new community library where the mission is to support, encourage, and foster lifelong learning. In addition, the newest St. Francis clinic in partnership with Allina Medical is conveniently located on the adjacent property making medical services readily available to residents and the community as a whole. Adjoining the medical facility is a convenient pharmacy.

Just minutes away in historic downtown Jordan, you'll find antique and gift shops, bed and breakfast lodging, as well as businesses and restaurants. Brentwood Court is within blocks of banks, grocery stores, gas stations, City Hall, and many more businesses.

Some of the Twin Cities' leading attractions, including the Renaissance Fair, Mystic Lake Casino, Canterbury Park Race Track, and Valleyfair Amusement Park are all within 15 minutes from Brentwood Court.

Jordan offers something for everyone: Apple orchards, summer baseball, championship golfing, local swimming and fishing, a river with waterfalls and great shaded areas with gazebos to rent for group events. It's a great place to live where you're sure to be greeted with some hometown hospitality!

The City of Jordan is approximately 30 miles from downtown Minneapolis and 25 miles from downtown St. Paul; both cities offering significant arts, cultural, sports, and dining experiences.
